SALE AND CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

SUPPLEMENTATION. Issue of further supplements to this regulation by subordinate commands is prohibited unless prior approval is obtained from HQ EUSA, ATTN: FKJ1-HRD-HP, Unit #15237, APO AP 96205-0010.

1. PURPOSE. This regulation prescribes responsibilities, policy, and procedures for the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages on United States Forces, Korea (USFK) installations.

2. APPLICABILITY. This regulation applies to soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines, civilian employees (Korean National and United States), their families and guests, commanders, supervisors, and agencies exercising responsibilities for the sale and/or consumption of alcohol.

3. REFERENCES. Related publications are listed below.

- a. AFR 30-2 (Social Actions Program).
- b. AFR 215-7 (Morale, Welfare and Recreation).
- c. AR 215-2 (The Management and Operation of Army Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Programs and Nonappropriated Fund Instrumentalities).
- d. AR 600-63 (Army Health Promotion).
- e. AR 600-85 (Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Program).
- f. PACAF SUPPLEMENT 1 to AFR 215-7 (The Control, Procurement, Sale, and Use of Alcoholic Beverages).

4. OBJECTIVE. To limit the sale and use of alcoholic beverages to persons 18 years old or older for active duty personnel and to 20 years old or older for all others.

5. POLICY. Leaders in the USFK recognize the tragedies associated with abusing alcohol. This regulation is designed to assist in the control of such abuse. Commanders, supervisors, and all other personnel are responsible for enforcing this regulation. The involvement of each member of USFK is essential in the prevention and identification of abuse.

USFK Reg 600-40

6. GENERAL RESTRICTIONS. These restrictions apply to all USFK facilities and services. The minimum age for purchasing, providing, possessing, or consuming alcoholic beverages will be limited to 18 years of age or older for active duty personnel and to 20 years of age or older for all others.

7. RESPONSIBILITIES.

a. The Assistant Chief of Staff, J1, will serve as the USFK point of contact for initiatives regarding the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

b. Installation commanders will--

(1) Ensure, in coordination with civilian personnel offices, morale, welfare, and recreation employees attend mandated training; for example, Alcohol Sellers Intervention Program (ASIP).

(2) Establish a Designated Driver Program in every club on each installation and actively promote this program.

(3) Ensure all of the provisions of this regulation and regulations referenced in paragraph 4 are effective in their areas.

(4) Ensure that alcoholic beverages are not sold to or consumed by anyone under the minimum age in any facility in their community. This shall be verified by requiring patrons to show proof of age when there is reason to believe he or she is not old enough to purchase alcoholic beverages.

(5) Ensure that employees of all facilities understand that it is their responsibility to refuse service to any individual who appears intoxicated.

(6) Ensure that consumption, storage, or possession of alcoholic beverages in the work place or in government buildings (not to include places of residence) must be approved by the first general officer in the chain of command. Added, see C1

c. Unit commanders will--

(1) Ensure that all personnel are aware of this regulation through unit training.

(2) Ensure that unit personnel are aware that compliance is an individual responsibility and not solely that of personnel who sell alcoholic beverages.

(3) Make immediate referral for an initial screening interview to the servicing Alcohol and Drug Abuse Program when military personnel are cited, arrested, or involved in an alcohol related incident.

d. The Army and Air Force Exchange Service will ensure that all employees who sell alcoholic beverages receive training similar to ASIP. Ensure that these employees understand that it is their responsibility to verify the age of patrons purchasing alcoholic beverages.

The proponent of this regulation is the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, J1. Users are invited to send comments and suggested improvements on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) to the Commander, USFK, ATTN: FKJ1-HRD-HP, Unit #15237, APO AP 96205-0010.
